Gender Assessment Tool for National HIV Responses, UNAIDS

Towards a gender transformative HIV response

Stages

- Preparing for the gender assessment of the national HIV response
- Knowing the national HIV epidemic and context
- Knowing the national HIV response
- Analysing and using the findings of the assessment for a gender transformative HIV response

Preparing for the gender assessment of the national HIV response

- high-level commitment
- gender assessment team
- gender assessment framework
- resource plan for the gender assessment
- relevant documents
- gender assessment workshop with all relevant stakeholders

Knowing the national HIV epidemic and context

- HIV Prevalence and Incidence
- Social, Cultural, and Economic Factors
- Knowing the HIV Epidemic Context: Legal and Political Factors

Knowing the national HIV response

- HIV and gender in policies and programmes
 - the overall HIV response
 - meaningful participation
 - coordination of gender equality within the HIV response
 - gender equality in the conceptual framework and design
 - gender equality awareness and knowledge
 - assessing expenditure allocation

Knowing the national HIV response

- A comprehensive HIV response
 - HIV prevention
 - treatment
 - care and support
 - gender-based violence (GBV)
 - sexual and reproductive health and rights

Knowing the national HIV response

- Gender considerations per community
 - women and girls
 - men and masculinities
 - key populations
 - young people

Analysing and using the findings of the gender assessment

- Narrative report
- Analyse the findings
- Priorities to achieve a gender transformative HIV response
- Advocacy plan
- Communications strategy
- Budget for implementing the advocacy and communication strategies.
- Fundraising strategy
- Gender assessment monitoring process