

WHO consolidated guidelines 2021

- Now includes key recommendations on HIV prevention, testing and treatment
- Relies on the latest recommendations on the HIV testing Services (WHO, Dec 2019) and earlier policy briefs on HIV prevention and treatment
- No changes for the ART 1st and 2nd line
- Changes in the treatment recommendations included
 - ART monitoring (threshold and frequency of VL) and use of point of care and most up to date diagnostics
 - Early infant diagnosis
 - Frequency of visits to the clinics and MMDs
 - Initiation of ART in the context of TB screening and TB treatment

WHO HIV apps

WHO HTS Info: app

WHO guidance on HIV testing app

- Guidelines in your hands

HIV Tx app

HIV treatment and care app

Oral PrEP Tool app

WHO PrEP Implementation Tool app.

Organizational Scheme for GHSS 2022–2030

Three Strategies and Common Areas Presented in One Publication

Chapter 1: Introduction (context; challenges; vision; goals; and targets)

Chapter 2: Framing the Strategies (SDGs, PHC; UHC; health systems; continua of services; equity; and people-centred approaches)

Chapter 3: Leveraging and advancing PHC, UHC and health systems STRATEGIC DIRECTION 1
(enabling environment; governance; health information; essential health commodities; health workforce; financing)

Chapter 4: Integrated service delivery approaches STRATEGIC DIRECTION 2
(linkages; integrated and aligned interventions including EMTCT; integrated and aligned service delivery models)

Chapter 5: HIV (populations; interventions)

STRATEGIC DIRECTION 3

Chapter 6: Viral hepatitis (populations; interventions)

STRATEGIC DIRECTION 4

Chapter 7: STIs (populations; interventions)

STRATEGIC DIRECTION 5

Chapter 8: Leadership, partnership, accountability, progress monitoring (2026 MTR)

Global Health Sector Strategies on HIV, Viral Hepatitis and Sexually Transmitted Infections, 2022–2030

Ending Epidemics and strengthening primary health care and health systems

- Sustainable Development Goal 3: Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages
- All other Sustainable Development Goals

WHO strategies development HIV, VH, STIs – tentative calendar 2021-2022

